Foxbury Farm Shop starts the new year in a winning way

Farmer Colin Dawes of Foxbury Farm at Brize Norton is celebrating the new year with not just moving into his new larger Farm Shop but also having been awarded the accolade Best Local Food Business for the South of England by The Countryside Alliance.

Described by Head judge Sara Rutherford "Foxbury has the sort of passion and commitment that we are celebrating through these awards. Colin and his team have impeccable credentials, he supports only British producers in his shop. This is a genuine, no frills local food business based on a real working farm, and Colin's passion is the main ingredient to his deserved success".

His business now goes forward to the National Final with the winner announced at The House of Lords on the 3rd February 2010
